Formal Health Insurance Claim Appeal & Reconsideration Procedure

==========

Official Healthcare & Insurance Knowledge Document

SECTION: Level-1 Clinical Grievance and Appeal Protocol

Following receipt of a formal claim denial notice, the hospital billing specialist may submit a Level-1 Appeal for Reconsideration within thirty days. The appeal must clearly state the claim number, dispute grounds, and provide point-by-point clinical refutation supported by attached medical evidence. The insurance company’s medical audit committee must adjudicate and respond within fifteen business days.

SECTION: Level-2 Escalation and Insurance Ombudsman

If the Level-1 appeal is rejected and the hospital or patient disputes the determination, the matter may be escalated to the Insurance Ombudsman under IRDAI Grievance Redressal Regulations or referred for joint clinical arbitration.
